

Dear Ct Commerce Committee,

There is no such thing as a meat rabbit any more than there is a meat dog or meat cat. There is no such breed.

Rabbits are the third most popular house pet in the U. S., following dogs and cats.

Over five years ago I founded a sanctuary for rabbits rescued out of the meat industry. They come to me often sick, feral, frightened. They get vet care, good food and love. They are of different breeds. They all become loving. They show their intelligence and devotion.

Please do not promote rabbit meat, not until the day when you are willing to turn your own dog or cat over to the meat industry. It is the same thing.

Respectfully,

Derri Owen
